

CYSA Parent Code of Conduct

Responsibilities of the Parent/Spectator

- Parents must set the example by exemplifying the highest standards of sportsmanship.
- Parents participate in the game by watching, cheering and supporting the effort of all participants.
- Parents must understand that the game is for the players - their participation and enjoyment is the most important element.
- Parents shall maintain a professional relationship with their child's coach and avoid a confrontation immediately following the game.
- Parents must never criticize a coach in a public manner.
- Parents must exhibit good sportsmanship and refrain from foul language and verbal abuse of players, coaches, referees, opponents or spectators.
- Parents shall refrain from criticism during games or practices.
- Parents shall not coach or otherwise instruct players during practices or games.
- Parents are encouraged to get involved with their children's team!

BE A FAN, NOT A FANATIC!

As a parent of a CYSA player it is your right and obligation to contact the CYSA Board if you witness or suspect a violation of any of these player's rights. Please contact us immediately at www.borosay.org

Player's Bill of Rights

1. Players have the right to minimum playing time. Every player is guaranteed the opportunity to play at least one-half of every game.
2. Players have a right to practice and play in a safe environment.
 - a. Players have a right to practice and play unhindered by abusive language or actions.
 - b. Thunder or lightning: automatic 30 minute delay in practice in game
 - (i) Parents may remove child from field if coach continues to practice without expectation of punishment.
 - c. There must be a minimum of 2 unrelated adults present at all practices and games.
 - (i) Parents may refuse to leave child at practice or game if this requirement is not met.
 - d. Players have a right to expect that coaches and parents will conduct themselves at all times in a manner which is in keeping with the policy and fundamentals of SAY.
3. Players have a right to an equal opportunity to strive for success
4. Players have a right to be treated with dignity by all involved
5. Players have a right to expect, that coaches and spectators will set the example by exemplifying the highest standards of sportsmanship.
6. Players have a right to have fun through soccer.

As a parent of a CYSA player it is your right and obligation to contact the CYSA Board if you witness or suspect a violation of any of these player's rights. Please contact us immediately at www.borosay.org